Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) Terms and Conditions

Definitions: "We", "Us", and "Our" mean the insurance company authorized to make EFT withdrawals for insurance policyholder payments. "You," "your", "yours", "Agency", and "Brokerage" mean the insurance agency or brokerage authorizing the EFT withdrawals for its policyholders' insurance payments.

Service Provider: You authorize us to use a third party to make the authorized EFT withdrawals.

Application of Payments:

- 1. Funds withdrawn will be applied only to the designated policy number.
- 2. Funds withdrawn will first be applied to any outstanding premium balance in the current policy term. Any excess funds will then be applied to the renewal term if a bill has been issued for the renewal term.
- 3. "Business day" means Monday through Friday excluding our company holidays.
- 4. You agree to have the funds in the designated account effective upon on the date of upload, whether or not the date falls on a business day.

Non Sufficient Funds: EFT withdrawals that are refused due to non-sufficient-funds (NSF) may be resubmitted at our discretion. If an EFT withdrawal is declined for any reason, the Agency/Brokerage will be charged for the amount of the declined withdrawal and charges will be reflected on the Agency's/Broker's commission statement. Non-sufficient-funds return fees may also be assessed depending on the reason for return.
